From all of us at SABA, we wish you a safe and joyful holiday season.

As 2020 comes to a close, there is much to celebrate and highlight. 2020 was a tough year, yet it was a year of resiliency. While Bike Valet was "paused" for the entire season of community gatherings and festivals, SABA pivoted and launched some other projects and deepened our work in other areas. Check out our "Year in Review" for some of our accomplishments.

Still, there is much to be done. We have doubled down on placing equity front and center in all of our work. We continue to believe in the power of community-based engagement, education and local advocacy.

We want to support Sacramento as it builds back better once the pandemic passes. Cities worldwide are re-imagining their streets as places where people are the first priority and cars second. We can see a better, safer Sacramento with clean, fresh air and we want to help create streets that respect people who walk and ride.

We hope that you’ll join us in 2021, to continue our work in making Sacramento a
We thank you for the Bike love in 2020.

We'd like to take a minute to thank all of the people who graciously gave us support this year, whether it was as a volunteer with their gift of time, or a donation or membership and some hard earned dollars. We are grateful for all of you. Thank you.

---

Holiday reads: What’s on our Bookshelf

Make biking part of your plan to take on the challenges of a COVID–19 winter, John Greenfield, Streetsblog.

Study: The U.S. Can Afford to Build More Rail, Kea Wilson, Streetsblog.

Advocates: New Senate Transportation Chair Should Be a Climate Champion, Melanie Curry, Streetsblog.

---

SABA’s Gear’d UP is proudly sponsored by Washington Commons and Capitol Yards in West Sacramento. Find out how your organization or business can reach our 10,000 readers. Join us!

---

Like what we’re doing? Become a SABA monthly donor. Whether you commute by bike or just ride for the fun of it, your support will underwrite our efforts to make the Sacramento region a safer place for everyone to ride!

Sacramento Area Bicycle Advocates is a 501c3 nonprofit organization (ID# 37–1474544). Your donation is tax-deductible to the full extent of the law.