Making Biking & Walking Safer in Midtown

MAKING

BIKING + WALKING SAFER

IN MIDTOWN

JOIN US FOR A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION
WITH ADVOCATES, NEIGHBORS + CITY
PLANNERS

HOSTED BY THE NEWTON BOOTH NEIGHBORHOODS ASSOCIATION
+ THE MIDTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26 6-8 PM
1820 28TH STREET - FIRST CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

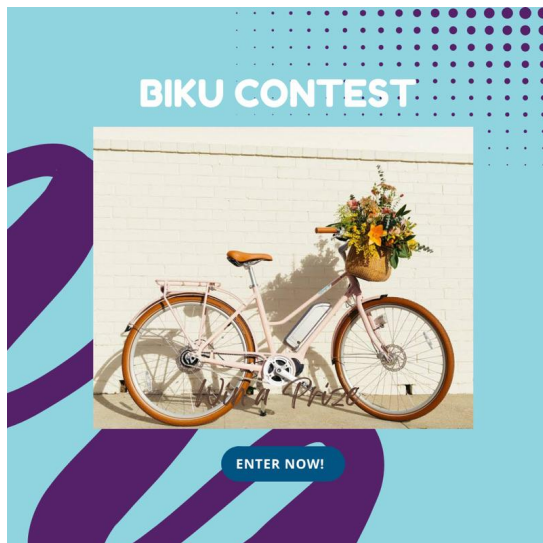

Did you know new protected bike lanes are coming to some major midtown streets? Join us for a community conversation on how to make Midtown a safer place to travel for pedestrians and cyclists. This free event is being held by the Newton Booth Neighborhood Association and Midtown Neighborhood Association.

Wednesday, April 26th from 6-8 p.m.

Jennifer Donlan Wyant, senior transportation planner for the City's Public Works department, and Deb Banks from SABA along with Civic Thread's Kathryn Canepa will discuss what can be accomplished to make biking and walking in the area safer. We encourage you to attend and lend your voice in making our streets as bicycle and pedestrian friendly as possible.

BikU Contest: Still Accepting Applications

Our resident poet laureate is still accepting submissions for our BikU competition. Don't miss out on a chance to have your work featured throughout May is Bike Month. Send your bicycle-themed haiku poems to diana@sacbike.org. As a refresher, a haiku is a 3 line Japanese poem made up of 17 syllables following a 5,7,5 syllable pattern structure. Explore your artistic side this month for National Poetry Month. Deadline is April 30th.

Volunteers Needed!

We need your help to make our May is Bike Month a smashing success. We are in need of volunteers to help us at our MiBM events coming up. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Diana Fountaine at diana@sacbike.org. We are looking for a few good men, women, and thems to provide a hand at the following:

1. May is Bike Month Kickoff Event on April 30th in West Sacramento,
2. SAClovia: Bikes on the Boulevard Open Streets event on May 28th.

Upcoming May is Bike Month Events
