The City of Sacramento Budget Survey

The City of Sacramento is seeking public input for the upcoming 2024/2025 fiscal budget year. The city is facing a significant budget gap of 66 million dollars. The city budget has been dealing with a deficit for several years. To make sure that active transportation isn't put on the back burner, we encourage you to participate in the survey and upcoming discussions about the Budget.

You can access the survey here.

Upcoming discussions are at the Pannell Meadowview Community Center on 3/13 and the Clunie Community Center on 3/14. Both events will start at 6 PM.
