Get some Biketober miles in by joining SABA's

Biketober Gravel Levee Ride on Sunday, October 13

We will be taking a gravel ride down the West Sacramento Levees! Just in time for October cyclocross race season, we'll get a preview of the paths the pros ride.

If you can, volunteer to be on the ride crew that helps keep the group together.

Sun. Oct. 13, 2024 – Meet at 9:30 am, roll out at 10:00am
Tree House Café, 630 3rd Street, West Sacramento

Route: <https://ridewithgps.com/routes/48648853>

Velo Ball was a Success!

SABA's cycling celebration Velo Ball on October 5 helped raise money to outfit and launch the new Community Bike Shop that will be on Stockton Blvd. In partnership with Community Shop Class, the youth-led bike shop will train young people to repair bikes and install e-bike conversion kits.

Thanks to all who participated in and sponsored the event and congratulations to Arlete Hodel & Bill Leddy, our Good Wheel awardees!

Cycling in the News

- Governor Newsom Signs SB 960, the Complete Streets Bill, CalBike – The Complete Streets Bill will require Caltrans to consider the needs of people riding bikes, walking, and taking transit on our state roadways, many of which serve as local streets.
- What does transportation justice look like? The Oaklandside – Maintaining the transportation status quo in our cities is inequitable and untenable in every way — economically, environmentally and socially. That's the blunt assessment of a new "mobility justice" report from the Anti-Police-Terror Project, an Oakland-based nonprofit.
- Bike lanes don't just benefit cyclists, Commonwealth Beacon – A comprehensive study by the University of Colorado Denver and the University of New Mexico found that bike lanes benefit the entire city by enhancing safety and accessibility, improving traffic flow, and promoting environmental sustainability.
